To Whom It May Concern:

Having achieved many career goals in the field of cosmetology in a salon environment, I am looking to expand my professional horizons by seeking new opportunities in the film and entertainment industry.

While I have been working in the beauty industry as a hair stylist in the past few years, I have realized that I would like to take my passion further by pursuing a career in a different direction. I am confident that my talent along with my educational background will be an asset for your project. In actuality, the experiences which I have encountered while being a hair stylist in Las Vegas has only made me a more patient person, working efficiently under high stress levels. I have dealt with all personality types, multiple ethnicities and language barriers from all over the world, including a wide range of high end clientele, which has helped me achieve an elevated level of professionalism, both socially and technically.

I love being around people and communicate extremely well in a professional group setting. I am detail oriented, hard-working and constantly thirsty for new knowledge to better myself. I am quick to learn and always excel with any opportunities presented to me. I am never discouraged by a new challenge since I am certain that my experiences along with my talent and passion will surpass any difficulties that I may encounter. I guarantee that my efforts will always be genuine and from the heart, working to the fullest of my abilities.

Please note that I am now living in the Los Angeles area with my certified California cosmetology license and available for employment at any time. Feel free to contact me at your convenience and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Christine Liu 6367 W. 6th St. Los Angeles, CA 90048 214-616-5292 Christineliu82@yahoo.com
