Bio

Shauna Thomas career started back in the 80's. She did her own makeup and had continuous compliments from family/friends who wanted their makeup done by her.

She then was introduced to Klexius Kolby whom she would assist for many years. She learned a lot from him and the simplicity of makeup. Barbara Dally trained her as well. Shauna has worked on photo shoots, television, film, commercial, and editorial. She continues to work as a freelance makeup artist and still assists others when needed. Shauna recently assisted Donald Simrock on a video.

She continues what she loves to do and always says, "If someone feels amazing when they walk away from me, then it was all worth it!"
