Bobbi Hill Casting Agency – Reel People is full-service company, casting for over 31 years of experience. Bobbi Hill began her professional journey in 1980 in Las Vegas. From Las Vegas she moved to LA then to Florida, and has enjoyed years of success in the business and entertainment, where her experience directing and teaching theater for 10 years has enhanced her skills as a casting director. Negotiation and meeting production deadlines from concept to screen are just a small piece of the bigger picture. She also has experience in casting over thousands of varieties of projects, from feature and independent films to commercials, industrials, voice overs, television, radio, theatre, infomercials, music videos, documentaries, trade shows, etc.

Her goal is to connect you with the exact cast that will breathe life into your script, and blow your clients away. Nothing less will do! She has learned through years of experience that passion for your purpose is the first step to success. She uses this prospective to approach each project with a renewed eagerness, to add the human element to each and every project. She is also a very hands-on, old school casting director and will always be available on set.

As the casting director with a full staff and crew, she has learned to run auditions and handle the stress and chaos that can sometimes occur in small or large projects of a film set, with grace and serenity. She casts throughout the West Coast of Florida, Tampa and all surrounding areas, or nation-wide via web cam or video auditions. She casts people from principals to extras knowing that whether it's a small role or a big one, that every actor should be treated with the respect, Union or Non-Union. By treating everyone with respect, she, in return, is a much respected casting agent in this business. She offers a wide variety of casting options, as well as a very large database of talent.
