Profile

Isabella Wiley career as a Makeup Artist started when she attended the school from Christian Chauveau in Paris. She returned to her native country of Austria where she worked as an Apprentice in the famous Grazer Schauspielhaus. She learned: Wigmaker Technician, Hairstyling and Make up Design. Later she worked with Directors Michael Haneke (Das Schloss), Wolfgang Glueck and Franz Novotny. To extend her knowledge and experience in Motion Pictures, she left Austria. She went to Los Angeles to study FX Makeup at Joe Blasco. Isabella met her husband and started a Family. She met Erwin Kupitz and worked for him on various film and TV project as a wigmaker technician for 6 to 7 years. In the years she worked for Erwin, Isabella also transferred her European Hairstyling License to the Cosmetology License of California. In 2005 Isabella decided to focus her efforts to become a Union Make up Artist. Three years later she earned the days to join the Local 706 as a Make up Artist.
