Dear Sir or Madame:

I am very pleased to apply for such an upstanding position with your company.

I have always wanted to apply for and work as a writer and creator in the entertainment Industries. I feel your company has made the most of its resources, and has applied the utmost amount of effort to pleasing people and audiences everywhere.

On all of my past endeavors, and through all of my experiences, I have always strived to provide the best service, and to guarantee people enjoying and loving the contribution I give forth to the entertainment industry, so that I could one day be astute and firm enough in my position of providing not only superior quality entertainment, but to provide superior quality client services for a major entertainment corporation in order to assist and put forth a superior form of audience entertainment experience. I am happy to have worked with Tower Records' Tower Music Group in the final months before their bankruptcy as a producer, writer and vocalist as well as serve many long days for a television set during mid-season out in Los Angeles. It has proven to be a memorable and influential part of my life.

My past experiences in entertainment as a performer and freelance writer and creator, has enabled me to find a certain amount of ability to carry forth on projects in order to fulfill all goals to completion on deadline. I have written feature length screenplays, registered with the WGAW, and I have worked with record companies and have been published as a producer of modern music and have successfully integrated different genres in order to create a new sound of fusion, that has been received very well on the internet. This allows me to demonstrate a unique ability to innovate and create new dialog and marketing practices. Digital marketing and customer interaction are two of my strong points, and nothing pleases me more than accomplishing goals and administering a successful reputation to my work and project management resume.

Sincerely,

Dane Light
