

LEONARD WOLF

Leonard Wolf has decades of experience in gigging live, studio keyboards, composing, sound design, audio engineering and mixing for all media. He's won 4 Emmys and many other awards. He's scored 5 feature length films, several episodic TV series, and much more.

As a songwriter he has had songs recorded by Vince Gill, Della Reese, Gospel great Shirley Ceasar, Jazz singer Jaimee Paul, and others both here and in Europe.

As a professional musician, composer or engineer, Leonard has worked with a wide variety of folks including Garth, Reba, Dr. Hook, Don Everly, Donna Summers, Frankie Lane, Lee Greenwood, Billy Crystal, Bill Medley, Lynn Anderson, Chet Atkins, Lionsgate, and Tiny Tim.

He's composed music for a myriad of commercial entities including CMT, Nascar, Pepsi, Friedman's Jewelers, Pizza Hut, United Methodist Church, McDonald's, Blue Cross, and ServPro and was named an Adweek Creative Allstar.

He is equally at home with an orchestra, as a solo pianist, or as a one man rock band playing guitar, bass, and drums. Working alone he can compose, sound design, and mix almost any kind of music or audio anywhere in the world.
