Nobody will work harder to make sure you get the sound you deserve.

A self-starting attitude with a dedication to teamwork and solid professionalism makes me a valuable asset to any production. Mature and well seasoned through hard work and experience, I work smoothly with the many personalities that make up a modern set.

I am familiar with various crafts and have a practical working knowledge of the tasks, burdens, and solutions that are necessary for each department. This diversity provides me with an invaluable amount of training, experience, and local relationships. Combined with my experience and ability, this makes choosing me as a member of your team a wise and easy decision. I look forward to hearing from you very soon.
