

Hi Producer,

As a seasoned 32-year veteran stunt man and coordinator, I have lived my life preparing others for their toughest challenges. Among my most recent challenges was the big budget Netflix feature film titled, "Dolemite is my name", Produced by John Davis and Directed by Craig Brewer starring Eddie Murphy and Westley Snipes. My career is full of some of the most amazing actors and actresses, and those killer scenes that make audiences gasp. I have many times thrust myself into the stunt scenes while coordinating, an accomplishment seldom achieved by most. Some scenes I serve as the second unit director to ensure my vision of the stunt is manifested. I am now embarking on the next chapter in the industry that I have come to love, as a director. I am one not to ever turn down stunt opportunities, however I thirst for the opportunities that lie ahead as my career journeys in its new direction. Please consider my talents, passion, knowledge and experience when selecting your team. I have attached my bio and resume and thank you in advance for any consideration.
