

MIKE REAGAN

Award-Winning Music Composition for Film, Television, and the Interactive Gaming Industry

www.mikereaganmusic.com

BIOGRAPHY

Since his return to Los Angeles in 1994, Mike Reagan has enjoyed a successful career as a composer, songwriter and music producer for Film, TV, and Video Games. His award-winning music has been featured in over 80 videogames, dozens of TV commercials, and has yielded a Grammy Award for Best Children's Soundtrack. He is most recognized for his role as Lead Composer for Sony Computer Entertainment's GOD OF WAR franchise, which has garnered several awards including the Game Audio Network Guild Award for Best Original Soundtrack (God of War I and II), as well as the Interactive Academy Award for Outstanding Achievement in Music Composition (GOW I). Other music projects include Darkwatch, THQ's Conan (2007), Twisted Metal: Black, Rise of the Kasai, and Brute Force. His professional experience as a composer has also led him to create original music for John Woo, Oliver Stone, Sony Pictures, Paramount Pictures, Warner Bros., and Jim Henson Pictures. Current music projects include two soon to be announced Feature Film projects, as well as Nickelodeon's new cartoon series, APE ESCAPE. Mike also continues his second season as Composer for Nickelodeon's Wow Wow Wubbzy!