Formally trained film production professional with over 2 years of industry experience and proven ability to implement projects of various sizes and scope. Particularly successful in overseeing new and complex endeavors and guiding them from start to finish. Skilled in collaborating and communicating in an easy-to-understand manner between departments and colleagues to accomplish the task at hand effectively each day. Consistently commended for initiative, creativity, enthusiasm, and passion for filming. Developed and maintained a cornucopia of skills in the Marines that have translated well into a structured but adaptable presence on set.
