

BARBEE JOY HALL
87 Kenwood Road, Milford, CT 06460
203-878-0346

OBJECTIVE

To accomplish all aspects of costume and set designs covering a variety of entertainment levels.

SKILLS

Sewing, designing and painting sets for various theater groups including films.

EXPERIENCE

Stitcher, Costume Designer, Production and Scenic Artist 1967-1970
for various youth theater groups
Some shows include: Gypsy and West Side Story
Stamford, Connecticut

Stitcher and Costume Designer 1971
Play of the life of Albert Einstein
Vernon Court Junior College
Newport, Rhode Island

Stitcher and Costume Designer 1971-1976
Classical 20th Century and Period Costumes for a variety of plays
Some plays include: Shakespeare and A walk in the Park
Nathaniel Hawthorne College
Antrim, New Hampshire

FREELANCE COSTUME DESIGNER AND PRODUCTION ARTIST 1980-Present

Recent Work:
Designed and constructed black angel wings to be worn by a model to be photographed by a top notch photographer in the tri-state area for a variety of magazines for promotions and etc.

Independent Film
Hungry
Wardrobe Stylist and Set Designer

Spiritual Film
Scenes in A Mind
Art Production: designing and sewing
white curtains and wardrobe stylist
Costume designing of aprons
Shooting locations: Waterford, CT

EDUCATION

Nathaniel Hawthorne College 1976
Bachelor of Fine Arts

Singer Sewing School, Stamford, Connecticut 1965-67
Summer Programs

Received a series of awards from Singer Sewing School for various preteen and junior clothes
Roosevelt Prep for art work
Nathaniel Hawthorne College for art work, sets and period costumes

Member of the Costume Society of America

Fashion Institute of Technology, New York, NY 2008, 2009 and 2010
Symposiums

References available upon request.